

ANTI RAGGING WEEK REPORT 2024

Anti-Ragging Week 2024 was celebrated at St. Gregorios Dental College, Chelad from August 12th to 18th, with various events aimed at creating awareness about the negative impacts of ragging and promoting a safe, inclusive environment. The week's activities included creative competitions such as e-poster, slogan, and troll contests, followed by an informative session led by Dr. Jain Mathew. The program concluded with students taking the anti-ragging oath to emphasize their commitment to a ragging-free campus.

1. E-Poster Competition (August 12th, 2024): Students were invited to create digital posters illustrating the harmful effects of ragging and promoting a respectful campus culture. The competition saw enthusiastic participation, with creative and impactful messages being shared.

2. Slogan Competition (August 13th, 2024): A slogan-writing competition was organized, encouraging students to come up with catchy and meaningful slogans that reinforced the anti-ragging message. Several powerful slogans were submitted, and the winners were announced at the end of the week.

3. Troll Competition (August 14th, 2024): To connect with the younger generation, a meme competition was held. Students used humor and creativity to address serious topics, like ragging, in a light yet impactful way. This activity was highly engaging and received positive feedback from the student body.

4. Awareness Class by Dr. Jain Mathew (August 16th, 2024): Dr. Jain Mathew conducted an awareness session focused on the psychological, social, and legal consequences of ragging. He highlighted the importance of empathy, respect, and inclusion, emphasizing the need for students to actively contribute to a ragging-free campus. His talk was well-received, with many students expressing a deeper understanding of the issue.
5. Anti-Ragging Oath Ceremony: The week concluded with a solemn Anti-Ragging Oath taken by all students, staff, and faculty. The oath reinforced the commitment to maintain a safe and supportive campus environment, free from any form of harassment or intimidation.

The prize distribution to the winners of the competition was done on 18th August 2024.

Anti-Ragging Week 2024 was a meaningful and impactful initiative at St. Gregorios Dental College. Through creative expression, informative sessions, and student involvement, the institution successfully spread awareness about the harmful effects of ragging and the importance of maintaining a positive campus culture.

The students' enthusiastic participation and their pledge to prevent ragging ensure that the institution remains a safe and inclusive environment for all.
